Marie Marshall Garsjo, 2006-2007 Chair

Marie Garsjo was one of the lucky people to get their names published in the last AEG News under the category of 20+ years of AEG membership. She has been Chair of the Texas Section for 2 years. She was an active member of the Oregon Section in the 1980's, and was Chair of that Section from 1984-1986. She works for the Natural Resources Conservation Service in their National Design, Construction and Soil Mechanics Center in Fort Worth, and has lived in Texas six years.

Cynthia Palomares, 2006-2007 Vice-Chair

Cynthia Palomares has been a member of AEG since 1986. She began with the AEG Texas Section as a student member, transferred to the Washington Section in 1990 and returned to the Texas Section in 1993. She is currently TX Section Treasurer and has been performing these duties since 2001.

Cynthia has B.S. and M.S. degrees in Engineering Geology from Texas A&M University. She began her career as a project scientist with Westinghouse Hanford Company in 1990. In 1993, she began working for the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality as a Geologist in the Underground Injection Control program. In 1995, she transferred to the Industrial and Hazardous Waste Permits Section as a Project Manager, where she currently oversees facilities in Texas that treat, store or disposal of industrial hazardous waste.

Cynthia currently holds licenses as both a professional geologist and professional engineer in the State of Texas.

Gary Henry, 2006-2007 Treasurer

Gary Henry is a graduate of Kent State University with a B.S. degree in Geology. Following graduation in August 2000, he worked with Fugro South, Inc. in McGregor, Texas, before returning to graduate school at Baylor University in the Fall of 2001. While at Baylor, Gary worked under Dr. Peter Allen, studying the effects of urbanization on streamflow in North Texas, and graduated with an M.S. degree in Geology in December 2004. Gary has been employed with Reed Engineering Group, Ltd. in Dallas, Texas since September 2004, where he is a staff hydrogeologist in the Environmental Consulting Department. In his free time, Gary works as a professional musician, playing a variety of music from rock n' roll to traditional country as a guitarist and vocalist.

Paula Jo Lemonds, 2006-2007 Secretary

Paula Jo Lemonds has been a member of the Association of Environmental and Engineering Geologists since 2002. She is currently the Texas Section Secretary and has been performing these duties since last year. Paula Jo earned her B.S. in geology from Texas A&M University and her M.S. in geological engineering from the Colorado School of Mines. She began her career in Denver with HDR Engineering and was the AEG Rocky Mountain Section treasurer from 2003-2004. In 2004, she transferred back home to Texas to Austin's HDR office where she specializes in water resources and environmental projects.
